To Whom It May Concern:

I am very pleased to write this letter concerning JD Hall's performances during the past years. They have established an outstanding reputation with our patrons. I have attended some of their shows and was pleased to see the positive response from their audiences.

The JD Hall Band is exceptional in their organization and preparation. Indeed they are all very professional and cooperative. In short, it has been an all around pleasure to work with them!

I can without hesitation recommend them for any casino or special event. If you have any questions with respect to the JD Hall Band, please feel free to contact me at the number stated below.

Sincerely,
